Learning Challenges in Learning Cities and Regions

Learning Cities and Regions have a large learning curve in many domains of governance. These are just a few of them.

TOOLS AND TECHNIQUES

How to find and use new tools to help develop your learning cities and regions

RESEARCH FOR ACTION

research progress in order to improve

MOBILISING STAKE-

HOLDERS - How to get everyone and every sector of the city working to a common goal

LEARNING ORGANISATIONS-

How to transform the city and its institutions into learning machines

GLOBAL CONTACTS

How your city, its institutions and citizens can profit from investment in global links

PARTNERSHIPS -

How institutions working together can help them and your city grow

NEW LEARNING TECHNOLOGIES

How to put new learning technologies to use in stimulating growth

ACCESS TO LEARNING

How to reach learners through support wherever, whenever and however people want it

ECONOMIC GROWTH

How to ensure prosperity through employability, employment, learning and inward investment

ENVIRONMENTAL SUSTAINABILITY

How to maintain all of these aspects in a responsible and sustainable way

How to measure, monitor and performance as a learning city

CONTINUOUS

IMPROVEMENT - How to develop and implement continuous learning programmes for all

LEARNING CITIES

LEARNING REGIONS

IN ACTION

THE LEARNING

CURVE

ACTIVE CITIZENSHIP

- How to mobilise the talents and strengths of all for the good of all

COMMUNICATION –

How to keep everyone in the city informed and involved, and potential investors interested.

SOCIAL ECONOMY -

How to develop a social economy that will contribute to learning city growth

FINANCE AND RESOURCES

How to rebalance budgets and find new resources for lifelong learning

BARRIERS TO LEARNING -

How to break them down and focus on the real needs and styles of learners of all ages

CULTURE & HERITAGE-

How to use the past to create economic and social growth in the present

CONSULTATION - How

to please most of the people most of the time and get them involved and empowered in the future of their city

Exercise: On the right of each box put a mark from 1 to 5 for each change as follows 1- fully meets this challenge 2= mostly meets this 3= half meets this 4- only a little done here 5= hasn't even started Norman.longworth@gmail.com For more exercises see www.longlearn.info